Honouring the past, embracing the future

The local First Nations peoples called the low lying land “Quilchena” meaning running water, sweet water, or many waters. On August 4, 1925, the evocative word was chosen as the name for a fledgling golf club.

The popularity of the original nine-hole course at King Edward and 33rd Avenue on the edge of Vancouver was immediate. Within a year of opening day, plans to lease more land and build another nine holes were well underway.

Over the decades, as the club evolved and eventually moved in 1956 to its permanent home in Richmond, that popularity and sense of community has been nurtured by the membership each step of the way.

Quilchena sustains the traditions of the original Quilchena Golf & Country Club, and secures the best that private club membership can offer for this generation, and those to follow.

Situated on the saltwater edge of Lulu Island in the delta of one of North America’s most famous rivers, surrounded by nature and history yet close to all the finest modern amenities, Quilchena is the essence of today’s lifestyle. Minutes from the world’s doorway, Vancouver International Airport; within view of one of the world’s most cosmopolitan and sophisticated cities, Vancouver; and just a brief scenic drive to the historic fishing village of Steveston; Quilchena is life fully realized.

The unrivalled golf course, clubhouse, restaurant, and service at Quilchena are at the very heart of the experience. However, the attractions and opportunities so close at hand enrich and expand the entire Quilchena lifestyle.
